

Points & Motions	What it Means	Decision/Vote	Second Required	Interrupt Speaker	Debatable
Point of Order	Used when a delegate believes the Dias has made a procedural error	Chair (No Vote)	No	Yes
Point of Information	Used to ask a clarifying question about the content of a speech or statement (only during the speakers list)	Chair (No Vote)	No	No
Point of Inquiry	Used to ask a question on parliamentary procedure	Chair (No Vote)	No	No
Point of Personal Privilege	Used to express concerns about comfort such as the temperature of the room or the ability to hear a speaker	Chair (No Vote)	No	Yes
Yields	Can be done after a delegate speaks; Can only yield to questions, another delegate, or to the Chair	Chair (No Vote)	No
Motion to Open Debate	First motion of the conference; move into formal debate and open the Speakers List	Chair (No Vote)	No
Motion to Set the Agenda	Sets the order in which topics will be discussed	Simple Majority (50+1)	Yes	No	3 pro / 3 con
Motion to Open Speakers List	Delegates wishing to speak will hold up their placard & be placed on the list	Simple Majority (50+1)			No
Motion to Set the Speakers' Time	First thing done after opening the Speakers List & adjusted as needed by delegates	Simple Majority (50+1)			2 pro / 2 con
Motion to Enter Moderated Caucus	Used for structured debate about more specific issues within a topic; delegate specifies purpose of caucus, length, & speaking time	Simple Majority (50+1)	Yes	No	No
Motion to Enter Unmoderated Caucus	Used for informal debate & discussion; delegate specifies purpose & length of caucus	Simple Majority (50+1)	Yes	No	No
Motion to Introduce a Working Paper	Brings a working paper that has already been approved by the Chair to the floor for general debate	Simple Majority (50+1)	Yes	No	No
Motion to Table the Topic	Tabling debate ends debate on one topic; delegates can table debate, move onto another topic, & return to the first topic at a later time	% Majority			2 pro / 2 con
Motion to Introduce an Unfriendly Amendment	Brings an amendment that has already been approved by the Chair to the floor for general debate & a vote when debate is closed on the resolution			No
Motion to Close Debate	Ends all discussion on current topic & moves committee immediately into voting	% Majority	Yes	No	2 con
Motion to Move into Voting Procedure

*Disruption - the more disruptive motions should be put to vote first (i.e. a motion for a moderated caucus of 10 speakers for 1 minute is more disruptive than 5 speakers for 2 minutes)

Motion to Divide the Question	Resolution splits into multiple resolutions	Simple Majority (50+1)			2 pro / 2 con
Motion to Reconsider	Reopen debate on a topic that has previously been tabled	$\frac{2}{3}$ Majority	Yes	No	2 pro / 2 con
Motion to Adjourn the Meeting	Used to end committee session	Simple Majority (50+1)	Yes	No	No

*Disruption - the more disruptive motions should be put to vote first (i.e. a motion for a moderated caucus of 10 speakers for 1 minute is more disruptive than 5 speakers for 2 minutes)